Legacy Circle Update Another Successful Year!

As Temple Shalom completes its fiscal year, and after our sixth year in participating in the regional CYJL (Create Your Jewish Legacy program), we wanted to provide a quick update on our Legacy Circle membership and program.

In the six years since this program started:

1. During the last fiscal year, we added seven new Legacy Commitments.

2. We now have eighty legacy commitments, over 25% of our Temple Shalom community.

3. Temple Shalom has realized $97,500 in Legacy commitments as bequests or outright donations to our endowments.

4. Future estimated realizations of over $1,600,000 are anticipated from its Legacy Circle members.

5. Temple Shalom has received over $36,000 of unrestricted incentives grants because of the success of its Legacy Circle program and your participation!

Our committee thanks our Legacy Circle members for your commitment and for supporting Temple Shalom's future!

Sincerely,

The Legacy Circle Committee

Editor's Note: For each edition, we ask Legacy Circle Members to tell their Temple Shalom stories

David Ness

David Ness grew up in Winston Salem, NC and Washington, DC, received an undergraduate degree from Duke University, obtained a law degree from Emory University, and worked at the Cincinnati regional office of the National Labor Relations Board before retiring. He is an enthusiastic biker, traveler, and avid basketball fan. Dave joined Temple Shalom about 10 years ago and is an active participant in our social action programs and initiatives.

Why did you join Temple Shalom?

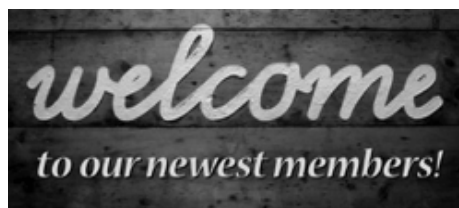

I attended several services, and I was impressed with both the Rabbi and the congregation. There is a commitment to social action, social justice and making the world a better place. Also, it's not super large and impersonal.

Why have you remained a member?

I have been involved in activities that are meaningful to me. I attended some Sunday morning Soup Kitchens and then began volunteering there regularly. I worked and developed a relationship with a Congolese family through the refugee program and helped them adapt to life in Cincinnati. Recently I found bikes and recruited friends to help with the Bicycles and Bookbags program organized by Ethel Cogen in conjunction with Kentucky Refugee Ministries.

Why did you become a Legacy Circle member?

I joined because I care about Temple Shalom, and I wanted to leave money in the future to an organization that will make an impact on the activities and causes that are important to me. I believe that Temple Shalom will continue to make a difference in Cincinnati.

Welcome to Robert & Sara Backman, Marc & Marji Levey, Mary Jo G. McClain, Jeff Rhein, and an anonymous new Legacy Circle Member

IN MEMORIAM

The Legacy Circle lost several of its members since the last newsletter.

Barry Austern

Ann Krashaur Mulvey

Stuart Warshauer

May their memories be a blessing.

Legacy Shabbat

The Legacy Circle and Rabbi Terlinchamp hosted a special Legacy Shabbat in April to show their appreciation to our Legacy Circle Members. Legacy Circle members Richard Barasch, Tina Bernheimer, and Tom Ruby participated with some special readings. Rabbi Terlinchamp led a very joyful service with music by Dr. Mark Bailey, Dr. Allison Acord, and oboist Dr. Peggy Grant. Videos from the service will be posted on our Legacy Circle page of the Temple Sholom website.

Good Luck Josh Rosen

Temple Sholom wishes Josh Rosen good luck as he starts law school at University of Illinois. Josh worked closely with all the regional CYJL organizations as part of the Cincinnati Jewish Federation.

Josh provided training, great input, and advice. He was always supportive of Temple Sholom.

The Temple Sholom Legacy Circle As of January 31st, 2023

The Temple Sholom Legacy Circle includes those who have made Legacy Commitments through a formal Letter of Intent, a Commitment Letter for an estate gift, or at least a $1000 outright donation to our endowment funds.
